Summary

SCMS NOIDA believes in holistic development of the students. Education is provided not only through the academic activities but it also takes initiative to sensitize students towards their constitutional obligation. Various events were organized in 2023-24 such as taking pledges on constitution day (26th November), celebrating Independence Day (15th August), Republic day (26th January). The main objective of these events is to make students aware of the constitutional rights and responsibilities as a citizen. Flag Hoisting ceremony took place on Independence Day as well as Republic day where in all faculty, staff were present. Students performed cultural programme in the auditorium to make the day special and memorable. Details are attached as evidence
